

The March to May 2014 mini-issue.

There has been no FEDAGA Newsletter since February as we had tried to set up a fresh Editorial Team. Sadly, this has not worked out. We are hoping to resume regular (or even semi-regular) issues from June.

Allotment Competition: have you entered yet?

It's not too late. The closing date is Friday 6th June.

All the information you need including a list of prizes, entry criteria and the registration form can be found here.

FEDAGA's website has been refreshed.

We'd like to draw your attention to our new website. It's got an improved design and we hope it's more user-friendly. To keep up to date with allotment business take a look at the most recent minutes of our Management Committee meetings. There's a lot going on. You can see the details of our most recent meeting here. Items of current interest can be found here. You can find dates for your diary here.
